Fix : the story of an addicted city [Videorecording] [aqaw]

Call Number: VTR/HV 8079/.N3/F5/2002
Adult; 92 minutes

Dean Wilson used to be an IBM salesman. Now, as president of the Vancouver Area Network of Drug Users (VANDU), he is the most politically outspoken drug addict in Canada. Ann Livingston, a non user, is the charismatic co-founder of VANDU. Dean loves Ann. But he is also a captive of the drugs he uses. Together, Ann and Dean lead an unpredictable crew of street addicts in their fight to open North America's first safe injection site. They find a curious ally in Philip Owen, the conservative mayor of Vancouver who rejects the US-style War on Drugs. Instead he champions a controversial European approach called Harm Reduction which includes safe injection sites. Opposed by members of his own party, the Mayor stakes his political career on Harm Reduction. The drug users say they are staking their lives on it. Fix follows these real life characters for two years as their stories interconnect in a battle for the hearts, minds and streets of a city each one calls home.

Flipping the world

Call Number: VTR/HV5824/.Y68/F55/2000
Senior 1 – Senior 2; 30 minutes

A culturally diverse group of seven high school students meets with members of the Odd Squad-Vancouver police officers who, since 1998, have been filming people addicted to drugs. But this is no ordinary school anti-drug presentation. The students talk to the police, then meet young people who are in recovery, and others still struggling with addiction. In the process, their views on drugs and the people who use them undergo important shifts. The students become more understanding and empathetic – and they reveal their own drug experiences. (MATURE THEME)

The Nature of things : dealing with drugs [videorecording] [aive]

Call Number: VTR/HV 8079/.N3/N37/1993

A two part series on illegal drug use. David Suzuki visits four countries to explore the different attitudes and approaches taken in dealing with the problem of illegal drug use.

The Nature of things: dealing with drugs - new options part 1
[videorecording] [aoqk]

Call Number: VTR/HV 8079/.N378/P.1/1993
Adult

This video asks if the escalating "war on drugs" is doing more harm than good. This program examines the drug problems and policies of four major cities, finding inspiring success in the "harm reduction" policies of Amsterdam and Vancouver, and terrible failure in New York, where addicts are jailed, needle exchange is illegal and transmission of disease is rampant. We hear from addicts, physicians, law enforcement officers and politicians, each with their own perspective. This program invites the viewer to suspend all preconceptions, strip off the labels "drug-addict," and "criminal", and try to understand that harmful drug use is often a symptom of complex social problems.

Constable Al Arsenault, along with six other policemen, began video-documenting the lives of people on their beat to create a powerful educational tool to help prevent drug use among young people. The result is a gritty documentary that gives addicts a voice to talk openly about who they are, and how they got to the streets. Through their participation on this video, they want to stop other from joining their nightmare. (WARNING: CONTAINS COARSE LANGUAGE AND GRAPHIC SCENES. PREVIEW BEFORE USE)

Fix : the story of an addicted city [Videorecording] [aqaw]

Call Number: VTR/HV 8079/.N3/F5/2002

Adult; 92 minutes

Dean Wilson used to be an IBM salesman. Now, as president of the Vancouver Area Network of Drug Users (VANDU), he is the most politically outspoken drug addict in Canada. Ann Livingston, a non user, is the charismatic co-founder of VANDU. Dean loves Ann. But he is also a captive of the drugs he uses. Together, Ann and Dean lead an unpredictable crew of street addicts in their fight to open North America's first safe injection site. They find a curious ally in Philip Owen, the conservative mayor of Vancouver who rejects the US-style War on Drugs. Instead he champions a controversial European approach called Harm Reduction which includes safe injection sites. Opposed by members of his own party, the Mayor stakes his political career on Harm Reduction. The drug users say they are staking their lives on it. Fix follows these real life characters for two years as their stories interconnect in a battle for the hearts, minds and streets of a city each one calls home.

The Nature of things: dealing with drugs - new options part 1 [videorecording] [aoqk]

Call Number: VTR/HV 8079/.N378/P.1/1993

Adult

This video asks if the escalating "war on drugs" is doing more harm than good. This program examines the drug problems and policies of four major cities, finding inspiring success in the "harm reduction" policies of Amsterdam and Vancouver, and terrible failure in New York, where addicts are jailed, needle exchange is illegal and transmission of disease is rampant. We hear from addicts, physicians, law enforcement officers and politicians, each with their own perspective. This program invites the viewer to suspend all preconceptions, strip off the labels "drug-addict," and "criminal", and try to understand that harmful drug use is often a symptom of complex social problems.
